

Exeter Drama Company BOOKING FORM

August 2021

Dear Friends

After fifteen months of dramatic inactivity - we're back! We hope you've enjoyed our lockdown radio playlets and the Shakespeare videos (available on our website). For our return to 'normality' we present one of the most performed pieces from William Shakespeare, the comedy, Much Ado About Nothing (directed by Ian Guy and Alice Purcell). The play will be performed, in the round, in St Michaels's Church, Alphington between Tuesday 28th September and Friday 1st October. Curtain up at 7.30pm.

Returning from the crusades Count Claudio falls in love with Hero the daughter of Leonato, the Governor of Messina. His friend Benedick continues an ongoing battle of wits and wills with Beatrice, Leonato's niece while Don John plots mayhem and confusion. There are accusations, a death, a wedding surprise and the aimless antics of Messina's night watch. What more could you ask for?

With a combination of fresh new faces, old hands and one returning ex member we put our own, very special, slant on Shakespeare with comedy, music, singing, maybe a dance or two and a few hidden extras to keep you entertained!

We're so looking forward to welcoming you once again so please use and return the booking slip below.
